Proving by Danny Ron, Israel, October, 2008; Five kingfishers flew into the town and the local children began to chase them. One flew into a tree, hit its head, was knocked unconscious and rushed to a vet. The vet plucked a feather for the homeopath to potentise; it had a bit of tissue and blood on it.

The movie '300': The Spartan army was at the centre of the Spartan state, whose male citizens' primary obligation was to be exceptional soldiers. Subject to harsh military drill from infancy, the Spartans were one of the most feared military forces in world history; they fought with ferocious intensity. By the early 5th c. BC, Sparta was the unchallenged military master in southern Greece. (1) Bravery was the ultimate virtue for a Spartan; mothers would give their sons their shield with the words "[Return] With it or [carried] on it!", that is to say, either victorious or dead. (2) Spartan women were famous for their independence and were reared much like boys, including strenuous physical fitness training. They were head of the household and had much power. Both male and females participated in gymnopaedia the Spartan festival of naked youths. Their loyalty and love for each other and for Sparta gave them strength to face armies far larger than their own and defeat them. This is depth of commitment and fervour is depicted in the movie '300'; King Leonides took a troop of 300 to stop the advance of 7,000 Persians through Thermopylae. Leonides and his 300 fought to the death; if they had not been betrayed they may have won. The Persians had hundreds of casualties and desertions during the battle with the fearsome Spartans.

The Kingfisher Unit: The primary task of the legendary, elite and secretive Israeli Yehidat Shaldag (Kingfisher Unit) is targeting enemy structures and vehicles for assault by Israeli fighting aircraft. They deploy undetected into combat and hostile environments to conduct special reconnaissance. Using their high-energy laser designators, they can mark targets (terrorists) for fighter-bomber launched laser-guided bombs or Hellfire missiles from Israeli helicopters. (3) (4)

The Sacred Band of Thebes an "army of lovers", was a unit of hand-picked soldiers, consisting of 150 pairs (300) of male lovers which formed an elite unit of the Theban army in the 4th century BC. Herodotus describes them as the "best and bravest" among Thebans. Each pair consisted of an older erastês ("lover") and a younger erômenos ("beloved"). Polyaeus described the Sacred Band as being composed of men "devoted to each other by mutual obligations of love"; they would fight to the death to protect their lover. Plutarch claims that origin of the "sacred" appellation was due to an exchange of sacred vows between lover and beloved at the shrine of Iolaus (one of the lovers of Hercules) at Thebes. (5)
